Plan Presented To Provide Housing For Truckee Area

Chamber Asks Board For Agency To Handle Local Program

At their meeting Wednesday at Brown's, the directors of the chamber of commerce passed a resolution asking the board of supervisors to establish an urban redevelopment agency here so that further study and planning can get underway. The importance of immediate action was stressed by John Jamison, state housing official, who addressed the directors.

The Truckee area, now facing a terrific impact of newcomers as a result of the anticipated building and development program, as well as being required to provide housing for those being displaced by the highway construction, can, if necessary qualifications are met, participate in one of several federal and state special grant and loan programs.

This encouraging message was brought to some 40 members and guests of the Truckee Chamber of Commerce during a luncheon meet at Smart's Tuesday by Richard G. Mitchell, field representative of the urban renewal administration of the federal housing and home finance agency. Other speakers at the meeting ,discussing the same troublesome problem were Loren Fielder, chief underwriter for the federa lhousing administration at Reno and John Jamison, state housing representative.

Mitchell spoke in some detail on the various methods of meeting the current housing problem but emphasized the adaptability of one of four available plans.

This was the urban planning assistance program under which, by meeting several designated qualifi-

Work To Start On Truckee Station

The initial step in the enlargement of the Truckee maintenance station will be accomplished under the terms of a contract for which the division of highways yesterday received a low bid of $35,271. The offer was submitted by King & Marion of Oroville. Bids for the contract were submitted by six construction firms.

The construction of a four-lane freeway in the Truckee area makes necessary the enlargement to care for the additional maintenance equipment that will be required.

Under the terms of the contract on which bids were opened yesterday, the present yard area will be enlarged and graded to prepare for the construction of a new truck shed and added suraced yard area. Portions of the existing fence will be relocated and additional 72-inch chain link fence will be installed to enclose the larger facility.

The remainder of the construction will be done under other contracts.

Wednesday's low bid is subject to the usual review. Work will start within 15 days following approval of the contract. The construction schedule calls for the completion of this phase of the work in 50 working days.

Thomas Taylor, 25, San Bruno, is in the Tahoe Forest Hospital with serious back injuries as a result of an automobile accident near the twin gridges, six miles east of Truckee, Saturday morning.

According to Sergeant Frank Snyder of the California Highway Patrol, Taylor was a passenger in a car driven by James Clyde Clemens, 24, San Francisco. The vehicle went out of control, ran off the highway and was wrecked.

Clemens was treated for minor injuries and released.

Sergeant Snyder said that a mechanical failure in the steering apparatus of the car apparently caused the mishap and no citation was issued.

Bids Are Opened For Hobart Road

The division of highways announced today they had received a low bid of $57,045 for the resurfacing 8.1 miles of State Route 89 north of Truckee. The bid was offered by Granite Construction Co. of Watsonville. Three construction firms submitted bids for the contract.

The section of highway to be resurfaced is from 8.6 miles north of Truckee to the Little Truckee Summit. The contract calls for placing plant-mixed surfacing over the existing traveled way.

The project is intended to improve the riding quality of the highway and to minimize the need for spot patching in this section.

Detours will not be required during the construction period as only one lane of the roadway will be repaired at a time. Traffic will be permitted to pass through the working area with only slight delay.

Provisions of the contract call the work to commence, weather permitting, within fifteen days of final approval of the contract by the attorney general. Forty working days have been scheduled for completion of the project.

The board of directors of the Truckee Public Utility District at their regular meeting Thursday, adopted a set of working rules and wages for all outside employes of the district.

The rules cover working hours, overtime, holidays, sick leave, vacations and grievance procedure.

The rules further provide that there shall be no discrimination for union activities and the union scale will be paid. The resolution become effective May 1, 1958 and conditions and wages are subject to review on April 1, 1959.

The board also reviewed a resolution submitted by Attorney T. L. Chamberlain regarding methods and procedures covering purchases by the district. The resolution was laid over for further revision.

Donner Discussed

An offer of purchase of the Sierra Pacific Company's Donner Lake line was authorized. Reports that false and misleading statements about the policies of the district and the intention of the district regarding rates in the Donner Lake area, if the line is acquired, were discussed by the board members and it was decided to circulate the residents on the lake area and explain that no raise in rates is contemplated and some reductions could be expected as well as an extension of the street lighting services and a resident repair man for emergency services.

The board met with representatives of the Fairbanks Morse Co., manufacturers of diesel generating plants and discussed the feasibility of such a plant for the district. Detailed studies will be made by that company and the results reported at a future meeting.

DRUNK DRIVER WILL BE SENTENCED FRI.

After two hours deliberations Monday afternoon, a five-woman, seven-man superior court jury found 50-year-old Julius Yance Boatwright of Williams guilty of felony drunk driving involving personal injury.

Sentence was set for Friday, April 18.

Boatwright was arrested on the Section 501 of the California Vehicle Code charge after his pickup truck plunged over the grade at "Big Shot" on Donner Summit, March 20, and investigating officers found a quantity of beer cans and a whiskey bottle in the vehicle.

Boatwright's passenger, William Fugate, 57, of Sacramento, was injured in the crash, taken to Tahoe Forest Hospital, the county hospital and then to county jail, where today he still awaits hearing in Truckee Judicial District Court on charges of violating County Ordinance No. 136, being drunk on a public road.

Honor Roll Totals 11 Percent Of High School Students

Approximately 11 per cent of the student body made the honor roll for the third quarter of the 1957-58 school year, Principal William Sciutto announced. This is a recognition of hard work, self-discipline and a desire to learn,, he added.

"Many words are written concerning the accomplishments of athletic teams," Sciutto declared, "but when you calmly sit down and analyze the situation, these students deserve as much, if not more, commendation from their parents and the community.

"If we wish to develop a more serious attitude toward learning, the adults must continually stress its importance and values. A student needs and cries for this type of advice and guidance from those not directly connected with the school. This strenghtens and fortifies the school position."

Students are chosen by the use of a point system. Fifteen points or more qualifies the student for the honor roll. Each 'A' is three points, each B two points and each C one point. The most important requirement is an A in citizenship, Sciutto explained.

4. A helicopter landing area be developed.
5. Strict control of outdoor advertising.
6. Riding trails and a secondary road system be instigated.
7. Trailer camps and tent camping be prohibited.
8. An improvement club be formed of property owners so building plans can be approved before presentation to the county planning commission.

Three Named Here To Have Charge Housing Problems

The Nevada County Planning Commission has appointed three local men to serve on the local housing committee to enforce regulations covered under Ordinance 207, which regulates the types of structures permitted, use of trailer houses, sanitation restrictions and other measures.

Cecil Edmunds, chairman of the commission, said the local committee, comprising C. Z. Smith, Dr. Robert W. Affeldt and James (Hap) Warnke, will work in conjunction with Assistant Health Officer Dr. L. D. Nelson, Sanitarian Richard Walker and the planning commission.

The local committee, Edmunds said, will be empowered to enforce the terms of the ordinance and will report infractions to the commission. They will also act in an advisory capacity in passing on applications made by potential builders. Final decisions, he added, will be made by the commission, but recommendations from the committee will be given high consideration.

The ordinance was passed some time ago by the board of supervisors to prevent an influx of undesirable structures expected to be built as a forerunner of the 1960 Winter Olympics and the gigantic highway program planned for this area during the next two years.

Anyone noting violations in the area is asked to contact members of the committee and prospective builders are asked to secure permission from the group before proceeding. State housing and health officials, as well as the county agencies are supporting the committee.

AFFAIRS OF STATE
by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Sometimes the invasion of California's state capitol and the pretentious public buildings surrounding the antiquated structure by irate citizens has the effect of waking up legilsators. At least, such invasions let the state's solons and public officials know the public has some idea, at least, of what's going on.

Recently, Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, parents of four youngsters, the oldest of which is nine, arrived in Sacramento with what many believe are some justifiable complaints concerning what their youngsters are not learning in the public schools.

The Allens are from Amador County and the family has been established there since 1860. They were accompanied by Mrs. Russell Evitt of Jackson, wife of an Amador county supervisor.

First, they visited Roy E. Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction, armed with charts, problems out of arithmetic books for the fourth grade, and comparative books showing what was taught fourth graders 20 years ago and now.

They wanted to know why the current books avoid such "advanced arithmetic" as fractions or long division which were included in the books of 1930.

According to Mrs. Allen, Simpson informed them there was a good reason for the change in the last 20 years, but admitted he didn't know what the reason was. He told the group he would find out and send them the answer

"Mr. Simpson," said Mrs. Allen, "said he believes modern texts are geared to the ability of the students. We think they are geared to the least able pupils. He said supplementary text books are available and produced a list. But he was unable to find a supplementary text for modern fourth grade arithmetic on his own list."

The attractive mother made it clear that the complaints were not based on the failure of her own nine-year-old to make his way in school.

"Our son gets straight A's," she said. "He doesn't know anything, but he gets straight A's."

Further, she stated that Simpson indicated that as layman, she had no basis for criticism.

"We regard education," said Mrs. Allen, "as a service which is paid for by our tax money, and we have just as much right to criticize it as we have to criticize any other service."

The Allens and Mrs. Evitt came away from Simpson's office, they indicated, convinced that nothing short of an aroused public can improve the situation in the schools.

They suggest that perturbed parents express their views on education to their state legislators, no matter where they may be, or what their complaints.

This incident appears to be only a small sample of what parents have known for a long time, primarily, that the modern trend in education gears learning to the level of the less than mediocre, and that as a result, the best brains are not being developed in accordance with ability.

MOTORISTS WARNED TO WATCH BICYCLES

"Motorists, be alert for children on bicycles and help make bicycle riding safer in our community."

This appeal to motorists was made today by Sergeant F. H. Snyder in command of the Truckee substation office of the California Highway Patrol.

"Each spring and on through the summer months more and more children ride bicycles to and from school and during out of school hours," Sergeant Snyder continued. "This demands special attention by every driver of a motor vehicle, particularly during the hours when children are out of school.

"Bicycle riders must also do their part in avoiding traffic accidents," Snyder contiued. "They must obey all traffic laws and exert extra effort to stay out of tight spots in traffic.

"In addition to obedience of the traffic laws, the following were listed as helps to bicycle riding safety,' 'Snyder said:

1. Keep your bike in the best mechanical condition including the required lighting equipment.
2. Never ride double in traffic.
3. In group riding, stay in single file always.
4. Walk your bicycle across busy intersections.
5. Reserve stunt riding and tricks for off-the-street areas.

AUTO SAFETY-CHECK DURING MAY TO BE HELD BY GROUPS

SACRAMENTO—Plans for participation by California communities in the fourth annual nationwide vehicle safety-check during the month of May were announced yesterday by W. A. Huggins, executive secretary of the governor's traffic safety committee.

The program is sponsored by the Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee, Washington, D. C., and Look Magazine, with the cooperation of the association of state and provincial safe coordinators.

"Throughout the nation, motorists will be having their cars safety-checked in community check lanes," said Huggins, who is the California coordinator of the national program. "The primary object is to check as many vehicles as possible on a free and voluntary basis. It is expected that more than thirty California cities will participate.

"Safety-checks cover major items which affect safe driving including brakes, front lights, rear lights, steering, tires, exhaust system, glass, windshield wipers, rear view mirror, and horn."

The actual check of the vehicles is carried out by mechanics loaned from automobile and tire dealers, independent garages, and service stations.

"One out of five of the 2½ million vehicles safety-checked in the nation in 1957 was found to be in need of service attention," Huggins said. "In some states as high as 50 per cent of all vehicles were found to have some mechanical imperfection."

Tuesday afternoon the women of the church enjoyed fellowship and Bible study at the home of Mrs. L. F. Webster.

Wednesday evening was a spiritual treat for all that were present to hear Miss Ruth Battey, a missionary who has served 25 years in Venezuela.

The message for the Sunday worship hour will be on "Jacob's Trouble." This is the period yet to come in history which Bible students are familiar with as the time of the great tribulation. The sobering facts of prophecy should be an exoration to all.

MISS ELVA COX IS CANDIDATE FOR ASSESSOR OFFICE

Miss Elva Cox, chief deputy assessor for Nevada County for the past seven years until March 13, was here this week visiting friends and local voters in behalf of her campaign for election to the office of county assessor.

Elva Jean Cox

Miss Cox has announced that she will be a candidate for the post at the June 3 primary election and was calling upon voters here for support.

Elva Jean Cox, a byword in the Nevada County Assessor's office since Feb. 5, 1945, a period of 13 years has been associated with three Nevada County assessors, during which she has handled her work and assignments capably and well and has become familiar with all the records of the office and with the many duties and responsibilities demanded in today's complex county and state government.

Miss Cox commenced her assessor's office career with former Assessor P. G. Scadden of Nevada City and continued through the administration of former Assessor William Tamblyn and in late years as Chief Deputy Assessor to Charles Kitts.

Miss Cox' contention in the policy of this office is that of fair, just and honest assessments, equal to all sections of the county, and anyone of the various property owners within the county.

A native of Oklahoma and daughter of the late John B. and Nancy E. Cox of Grass Valley, Miss Cox came to Grass Valley with her parents in 1935. The family home has been located on Pine Hill Drive, Union Hill, for the past 21 years.

During World War II, she was employed by the United States Army Engineers at Sacramento and also by the State of California Department of Agriculture. Both of these positions were in the field of bookkeeping and accounting, positions which were early training for the later work in the courthouse here.

Miss Cox is a property owner of Nevada County and has long been an active exponent of the county's development and welfare.

She plans an active, meet-the-voter campaign in the two and one-half months before election and personally or through her friends expects to place her consideration for the office before every over-21 adult.

Statement of Principles

The Truckee Public Utility District was created by the Citizens of this community for the express purpose of supplying adequate utility services, when and where needed, at the lowest rates consistent with sound business principles.

Being consumer-owned, its customers and its stockholders are one and the same, with the result that it has one master and one loyalty—the community and its citizens.

With no conflict between consumer and "Stockholder" and with direct control of operating policy by the people it serves, the Utility District is in an unequalled position to serve the community.

American citizens are better informed – thanks to Advertising!

Advertising has been so busy talking about others it hasn't had time to talk about itself. It is the least understood industry in America. Yet it is a basic economic force.

It helps the farmer sell his crops. It helps the manufacturer sell his factory output. It helps the merchant sell his wares. It helps the technician sell his skill. It encourages giant corporations to tool up for mass production by speeding mass consumption. It is essential to our American Way of Life.

In short, America is a Better America – thanks to Advertising!

NEWS NOTES FROM TAHOE

by MYRTLE CARNELL

Luncheon Postponed

The Women's Club luncheon to have been held at Smart's last week had to be postponed because of the snow. The day turned out to be a very lovely one but it was too late to do anything about it as the luncheon had been called off on Monday. This meeting will be held at a later date, so don't put away those bonnets you'd planned to wear.

Back to the Snow

Many of our citizens returned to the lake after their rather extended Easter vacations, due to the weather conditions. While we enjoyed snow, they enjoyed rain. The Norman Mayfields found Santa Barbara a very enjoyable spot but are glad to be home. The John Palmers spent their vacation in San Francisco and returned home last week with a rather large amount of snow surrounding their home to greet them. Also home after an exciting visit in old Mexico are the Moros. Virginia, who is an accomplished artist found many subjects for her oil painting.

My neighbors, the Jim Williamsons returned home this week after about a months vacation with Markie's parents in southern California where they had a wonderful visit and a change or scenery. They were also confronted with an enormous amount of snow blocking their drive and porch, but Jim made short work of this with a rather ingenious hand sno-go. (The little machine really throws snow).

Pass Along News

I would again like to request that if you have any news let me know, it's so easy to miss interesting happenings so if you know of any just pass them along to me. Your friends like to read about you and your family. Would like to get more news from the Homewood area, too.

Snow Goes

Have you ever seen snow melt so fast? It looks like spring has finally arrived at our mountain paradise. The birds singing in the pines is certainly a welcome sound. (Now just watch it snow again because we mentioned spring).

Art in Three Mediums

....The Tahoe Artists are beginning instruction in three mediums beginning this past Tuesday evening. Instructing in oils will be Virginia Moro, in water colors, Max Wuthman and the charcoal class will be under the direction of Carl Olander. So whatever your interest in art, this should allow an outlet for your talent.

First Step Taken

The planning of the improvement of the Commons and beach here in Tahoe City got under way Monday night with a turnout of about 27 people. Although many more promised to attend, we felt this was a good beginning. With the help of Frank Paoli, supervisor, and William Scott, sheriff, who made a special trip to the lake from Auburn, a lot of legal aspects were cleared up and we got the project off to the right start. The project will be handled by a committee under the jurisdiction of the Community Center who will be the organization in charge of the improvements. Everyone in the area is needed to make this successful. It is your beach and your community so let's be proud of it. A meeting will be held this coming Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Community Center and a much bigger turnout is expected. Chris Burmer has done a real fine job in getting this thing started, but he can't do it alone and asks for your support and ideas. This Community Center holds a lot of people so let's fill it. There is room for you and your helping hand.

Report cards were received by most of the students at Tahoe-Truckee last Friday. Anyone who did not receive a card probably had a library fine or some other obligation to meet. Ever since "Sputnik" it feels as if the teachers have been expecting a bit more from us, so if your grades have gone down, you will know why. If your grades have gotten better, congratulations!

On the 15th and 16th of April, Parent-Teacher conferences were held at TnT. Many parents of pupils attended and helped to clear up individual problems. We wish to thank everyone for coming to this affair.

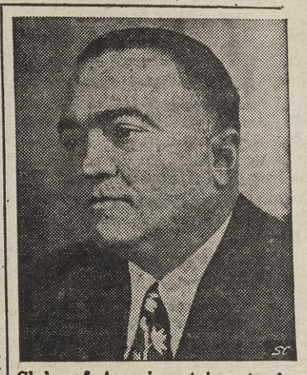
"A Gleam Of Light In A Dark Future . . ."

By J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director

"Crime continues to rise in a steadily increasing volume. Unfortunately, juvenile involvement in criminal offenses continues in the same general trend. But, in this dark picture, there are occasional gleams of light. One of these is the Boys' Clubs of America.



"The Founders of our Nation based their concept of government upon the theory that free men must accept responsibility or lose their freedom. Today, there can be no finer expression of patriotism than sincere and active participation in work dedicated to the development of responsible young citizens. Certainly, this is true of those who devote their time and energy to the individual Boys' Clubs throughout America, for these Clubs are proving their worth. They are taking boys off the streets and enlisting them in programs of intelligently supervised, constructive activity. Where they exist, delinquency diminishes.

"The children of a generation reflect the soundness of that generation. We owe it to ourselves not only to prevent delinquency, but also to develop the finest qualities possible in American youth. The Boys' Clubs of America strives to do both.

"That is why I am proud to be a member of its Board of Directors. That is why I believe the Boys' Clubs of America deserves the unqualified support of all our citizens in every part of our country."

CLOSE FOLLOWING IN TRAFFIC IS HIT

SACRAMENTO — To assure safety when driving behind another car in traffic, there should be a minimum following distance of one car length for each ten miles of speed.

This advice was given motorists today by the California Highway Patrol in an appeal for assistance in reducing the number of traffic accidents caused by following too closely.

"Last year 5,083 'following too closely' violations were noted in the 89,,571 fatal and injury accidents on our streets and highways," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "Usually, a driver following too closely is also driving too fast for conditions and is unprepared for any sudden stop or change of action by the driver being followed.

"Drivers who follow the car ahead too closely fail to realize the physical laws involved," Caldwell stated. "Reaction time and distance necessary to stop the car at various speeds are laws we must consider if a safe distance behind the other car is to be maintained.

"A good rule-of-thumb is one car length for each ten miles of speed," the Commissioner continued. "This will normally allow the safe stopping distance on dry pavement and a good reaction time.

"On wet or slippery pavements or under other adverse conditions, the distance should be increased accordingly."

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Siple will arrive at Tahoe vista from Glendale this week writing that they have enjoyed receiving the Sierra Sun throughout the winter.

WHAT'S DOING
George Selkirk, Telephone Manager, Truckee-Tahoe

Why are these two phone men having such a hard time opening that metal box? You can blame it on corrosion. It can rust or crack even tough metals, and here it has sealed the box shut. Phone wires from your house are connected to a box like this. But this one, in a special test, was exposed to wind, fog and ocean spray. We use these tests to learn new facts about corrosion. We also test to find metals that can resist it, yet are economical. By controlling this and other destroyers, we save thousands of dollars worth of equipment each year—and make your service still more reliable.

On any occasion, a kitchen phone in color makes a gift that's sure to please. With Mother's Day coming up on Sunday, May 11, you'll want to keep this in mind. For here's a gift that'll save her time and steps all year long. And she'll take pride in the beauty a color phone adds to her kitchen. Choose from seven eye-appealing colors: ivory, moss green, cherry red, pastel yellow, light gray, light beige, white. Cost, after a single installation charge: $1 a month. So call your telephone business office today.

WEATHER

After the big storm the week turned out to be beautiful, with sunny days but cold mornings mostly around 20 degrees. The snow is going pretty fast, melting off with the nice warm afternoon sunshine we have been having. Two or three buildings collapsed under the weight of the wet snow, mostly vacant, so no injuries occurred.

SICK

Alice Sorenson has been under the weather with a bad cold. Alice May and Fred Schultz had the measles as did Jerolene Rapisarda and little Cindy Plunkett, among numerous others. All improved, thank goodness.

DINNER

Filet steaks were on the menu at the Andy Sorensons' home last week and an excellent evening was enjoyed by all present.

1958 REGISTERATION MUST BE ON VEHICLES

Department of motor vehicles has notified traffic law enforcement agencies throughout the state that registration of vehicles for 1958 is now complete, and laws requiring display of current stickers and registration cards may be enforced.

Paul Mason, director of motor vehicles, said in Sacramento: "Records of the vehicle registration renewal for this year are complete several weeks ahead of the announced date last year. When those few motorists whose registrations present unusual problems requiring further processing are stopped, they should be able to show receipts, official correspondence, or 1958 stickers indicating that they have applied for current registration."

The reflectorized green sticker for 1958 must be attached to the rear license plate, and a 1958 registration card must be displayed in such a position that it may be read from outside of the vehicle, according to the state vehicle code.

PATROL WARNS ON SPEED FOR TRAILERS

SACRAMENTO—The California Highway Patrol warns that 45 miles per hour is the maximum legal speed for vehicles towing trailers on public streets and highways.

"The 45-mile maximum speed limit applies to all passenger motor vehicles regardless of weight or commercial motor vehicles weighing less than 4,000 pounds when towing trailer coach, trailer, semi-trailer, or other type vehicle," stated Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "This regulation applies to both owners of trailers and persons who rent trailers and tow them on any roadway.

"This limit of 45 miles per hour is a maximum limit, not prima facie, and is subject to other and more restrictive limits set forth in the Vehicle Code," Caldwell explained. "Drivers desiring to draw any trailer behind their car should review all the rules and regulations regarding such action.

"Proper lighting, approved connections between trailer and car, and an adequate rear-view mirror are important legal safety factors to be complied with," he concluded. "More detailed information concerning requirements for towing a trailer can be secured from any patrol office."

Board Raises Teaching Requirements In Placer

AUBURN—The county board of education has passed new regulations raising the requirements for provisional teaching credentials in Placer County.

These new requirements include additional university credits each year until 1966 when a bachelors degree will be necessary to obtain an elementary credential.

The members felt that higher requirements are necessary for the future in order to insure the highest educational standards possible.

Administrative salary schedules were discussed as a preparatory measure for the coming budget period. A report was made on recent trip to observe classroom work at Weimar and another report concerning a meeting held in Auburn last week concerning a proposed change in the state social studies framework.

HOUSING PLAN

cations, the area, through the county, can obtain loans from the government which would virtually finance a redevelopment project.

Under this plan, the speaker explained, an agency could be established by the board of supervisors to study the needs of the area designated in the assistance program. The legally constituted agency then could borrow anl needed finance for the study and for all improvements found necessary and advisable.

It could be assumed that a loss would be incurred in this joint financing program and if so, the government agency would share up to two thirds of the deficit and permit the redevelopment agency to pay its share through community improvements which would be of benefit to the redeveloped area.

These improvements could be in in the form of schools, sewers, streets or highways and a number of other community facilities.

In the urban improvement plan, Mitchell said, the state has adopted a community development law by which this area could participate and which, he explained, would be the most feasible plan for local needs.

Seven Requirements

The program cannot, the speaker emphasized, be had without effort planning and community interest by local participants.

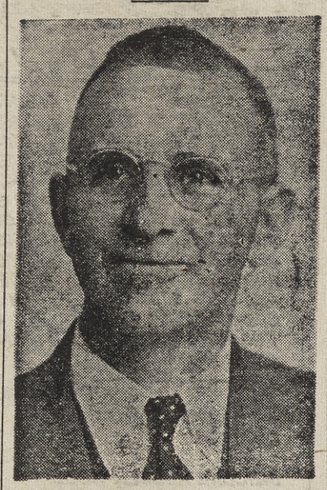
Seven points which must be met by the area applying to be served were listed as follows:

1. Adoption and enforcement of codes an dordinances which must be approved by the federal and state governments.
2. The creation and fulfillment of a master plan of improvement.
3. A thorough study and report of neighborhood analysis.
4. A working, competent administrative organization to handle all details of the program and provide surveys and plans.
5. An adequate financial capacity.
6. A plan for rehousing displaced persons affected by the redevelopment.
7. Community participation. A firm desire by the community to take full advantage of the program offered.

Fielder explained various methods of financing under the FHA and how his agency ties in with the urban renewal administration.

Jamison, who has been representing the state housing agency in this area for many months and who has a close insight upon the needs of the community, arranged for the visit of the two federal men and introduced them at the meeting which was presided over by N. F. Dolley, chamber president.

Charrison Seeking Return To Office As Judge At Tahoe



JUDGE HARRY CHARRISON

KINGS BEACH—Harry Charrison, judge of the Tahoe Judicial District Court since 1950, is again seeking the post over which he has presided so successfully for the past eight years.

Judge Charrison has been a resident of North Tahoe since 1944, coming here from Pasadena where he was also active in civic affairs and where he served on a special grand jury in Los Angeles County for some time. He is past state grand marshal for the Odd Fellows Lodge and a past president of the Lions Club at Kings Beach.

Between 1944 and up until his election to the judgeship, Judge Charrison acted as postmaster at Kings Beach, was manager of the Tahoe Theater, and in 1948 was appointed to a position with the state department of agriculture in the quarantine station here.

In 1955 Judge Charrison received a commendation from Governor Goodwin J. Knight for his "fairness and consideration," in the outstanding work being done in the local court.

In World War I, Charrison served with the Canadian forces and earned an enviable reputation.

In making his announcement, however, the judge declared:

"I do not believe that ancient records of achievements should have any bearing upon present and future activities. I have fulfilled the duties of the office I seek with fairness and integrity for the past eight years and seek a return to the judgeship on the basis of this record. I earnestly solicit your support and promise that I shall continue to do my best to earn your confidence and trust."

The 1954 National Wool Act recognized wool as "an essential and strategic commodity not produced in quanties and grades in the U. S. to meet domestic needs."

The first English circumnavigation of the earth was led by Francis Drake in 1578-1581.

Champagne Open House This Week

KINGS BEACH — Jeanne and John Palmer are opening the Riviera Shop at Kings Beach Saturday and Sunday with an open house, featuring a fashion show of completely new styles arriving this week from the manufacturers.

The fashion show of season surprises will be shown around the fireplace at the Riviera Shop and champagne will be served to those so desiring.

In making the announcement of the open house, Palmer declared that styles which a month ago were displayed became obsolete and replacements by public demand were made. Replacements, including the new chemise dresses are now at the Riviera, he declared, and these include imported designs from Vienna, the Bernhard Altmann summer sweaters, floral prints and scores of other desired items.

Prices, Palmer said, are lower here than in most city shops and the choice of style and design are better, giving local shoppers the advantage of style, quality and price unequalled.

Among the models to display the latest spring and summer wear are Joan Craine, Myrtle Carnell, Ellen Templeton, Alberta Nelson and Pat Gunkel. There will be others selected befor the show.

Everyone is welcome to attend the champagne open house, scan the new styles and visit, Palmer said.

POPULATION DOWN. TAXES GO UP IN THIS COUNTY SAYS C.T.A.

Hard-pressed property owners in Nevada County have just finished paying the second half of a property tax bill for 1957-58 which averages, county-wide, $110.27 for every man, woman and child in the county, S. J. Arnold, general manager of California Taypayers' Association, said today.

The second half of the 1957-58 property tax bill was delinquent April 10, he stated.

Total levy on property through out the county for 1957-58 reached $1,843,675. Of this sum $761,180 was for general county purposes, $176,717 for city government purposes, $867,T27 for school districts, and $37,951 for special districts in the county.

Comparison of 1957-58 property tax levies in the county with those for 1952-53 shows that the increase in levy is far in excess of the increase in population in the county, Arnold declared.

Population of the county now is 9 per cent less than in 1952-53.

Total levy for the county government purposes is up 18 per cent; for cities, up 11 per cent; for school districts, up 51 per cent; for special districts, up 64 per cent.

Certain Self-Treatment Should Worry You, Too...

Powerful and effective, many new drugs can produce remarkable results. Likewise, much damage can result from improper use or overdose. Dangerous immunities can develop. Permanent injury can be done —even life can be endangered.

For good reason, there are restrictions on the use of penicillin, Chloromycetin, certain sulfa compounds and other drugs without the care and prescription of a physician. When your health requires it, consult your Doctor. He will prescribe these new and potent remedies when he feels they are required.
